Seeking God

- through spiritual practices that sharpen our inner awareness,
- through living as if we belong to God—as we do!
- through companionship with other women,
- in the footsteps of Saint Angela Merici

Saint Angela Merici (1474-1540) founded the Company of Saint Ursula in Brescia, Italy, in 1535. She gathered single lay women whose celibate consecration to Christ was to be a Gospel presence in their world.

She placed the Company under the patronage of Saint Ursula, a leader of women and a martyr in the early Church.

Who are we?

The Company of Saint Ursula is a spiritual companionship of single lay women.

Why are we?

We respond to God's invitation by permanently consecrating our lives to Jesus Christ.

seek to mirror God's loving presence at the heart of our world.

In the midst of our jobs, homes, families, parishes, and neighborhoods, we seek God's face. We
